SPP USER GUIDE:

Searching for a resource in the Library – a quick introduction

STEP 1

Click on Library in the Publications menu on the top of SPP homepage (www.social-protection.org).

On the Library page, scroll down to Search for a resource. You can search by title, author, year, region, type, language, type, country and tags.

Place your mouse over the blue information icons for help on how to fill in what to select in the search fields

Summary (English)

This paper sets out the policy vision of the ILO that underpins its activities in the context of the Global Campaign on Social Security and Coverage for All. The objective of this policy brief is to contribute to the global debate between social security stakeholders, researchers, practitioners and decision-makers as to how to provide a meaningful form of social security to the majority of the world's population and to ensure that the human right to social security can be made a reality in the shortest possible time.
