

Short Curriculum Vitae

Thaworn Sakunphanit

Dr. Thaworn Sakunphanit is Program Director of the Health Insurance System Research Office, Health System Research Institute, Ministry of Public Health, Thailand. His researches and area of works are health and other social protection policies; health care financing; health insurance management and health economics. His previous working experiences included hospitals director, deputy director of Health Insurance Office of Ministry of Public Health, member of Committees and Subcommittees in Ministries and Parliaments. He published more than 30 research documents and publications, and also worked as an international consultant on health insurance.