

SHORT BIOGRAPHY

Luu Quang Tuan is Deputy Director of the Institute of Labour Science and Social Affairs under the Ministry of Labour-Invalids and Social Affairs-Vietnam. Tuan has obtained the Post-graduate Diploma of Population and Sustainable Development from the Centre for Development Studies/Jawaharlal Nehru University in India; the Master Degree of Economics from Lund University in Sweden. Over period 2003-2006, Tuan worked as a national project coordinator for a project supported by WB to help the Vietnamese Government developing the social insurance law 2006; Tuan also worked with the ADB to calculate the Vietnam social protection index 2009, the GIZ to develop the Vietnam social protection system up to 2020. Tuan's interests include labour economics and social protection.