

Ms. Pitchanuch Supavanich joined the ASEAN Secretariat in 2014 and is currently a Senior Officer of Labour and Civil Service Division under ASEAN Socio-Cultural Community Department. In her role, she facilitates the cooperation of ASEAN Sectoral Bodies on labour (Senior Labour Officials Meeting or SLOM) and civil service (ASEAN Cooperation on Civil Service Matters or ACCSM) and the collaboration between these Bodies and other ASEAN Sectoral Bodies and Organs and external partners. Previous to this, Ms. Pitchanuch served as a Senior Officer of Social Welfare, Women, Labour and Migrant Workers Division. Prior to joining the ASEAN Secretariat, Ms. Pitchanuch worked in international development field at Australian Aid Programme of the Australian Government and International Rescue Committee based in Bangkok, Thailand.

Ms. Pitchanuch holds Master Degrees in international migration University of Amsterdam (the Netherlands), University of Deusto (Spain), and University of Osnabrueck (Germany) as part of the Joint European Master Programme on International Migration and Social Cohesion. She also holds a Master Degree and Bachelor Degree in international relations from Thammasat University and Chulalongkorn University (Thailand), respectively.