

A short Bio

My name is Vanxay Souvannamethy. Currently I am working at the Social Security Department under the Ministry of Labour and Social Welfare as a Deputy Director. From 2008 to 2014 I was worked at the State Authority of Social Security Organization and I was a Deputy Director of State Authority of Social Security Organization and this organization was responsible for providing social security benefits for civil servant, Military, Police and for their families. From 2000 to 2007 I was worked at the Social Security Organization as a chief of Social Health Insurance Division. The responsibilities of this organization was provided the social security benefits for the state owned enterprises and private companies. Since 1988 to 1999 I was worked for Ministry of Health. I got a Bachelor Degree from Ysbekistan at the Medical Institute of Tashkent and got the Master Degree at the Mahidol University Thailand in 1997. The currently is responsible for Social Security Policy design and development especially Social security Law for the Lao people and also working for coordination with National Social Security Fund. The National Social Security Fund is the organization that was merged from two organizations in to one organization.