Session 2: Implications to the future of social protection in ASEAN (15:50 – 16:50)

The moderator will introduce the panellists. The session aims at discussing challenges that ASEAN will face and roles of social protection in the coming decades.

- Style: Panel discussion
- Slide: No presentation materials are expected.
- Topic: Some of the key questions follow.

Please come to register at 14:30PM, so that we can introduce the moderator to the panellists.

Panellist

- Mr Abdul Halim Mansor, President, MTUC - ATUC (Malaysia)
- Mr Agus Susanto, President, BPJS Employment (Indonesia)
- Mr Amir bin Omar, Secretary-General, Ministry of Human Resources - SLOM Chair (Malaysia)
- Mrs Florita Villar, Undersecretary, Department of Social Welfare and Development - SOMSWD Vice Chair (Philippines)
- Mr Ukrish Kanchanaketu, Advisor, ECOT - ASEAN Confederation of Employers (Thailand)
- Ms Patchari Raksawong Kingsperger (Moderator)

Key questions (tentative)

What are in your view the emerging challenges that ASEAN will face in the coming decades (e.g. ageing, informality, new forms of employment etc.)?

- Government view: Mr Amir bin Omar - SLOM Chair (Malaysia)
- Employers' view: Mr Ukrish Kanchanaketu, Advisor, ECOT - ASEAN Confederation of Employers (Thailand)

How will the emerging challenges affect the worker and the labour market?

- Mr Abdul Halim Mansor - ATUC (Malaysia)

How will the emerging challenges affect businesses and the labour market?

- Mr Ukrish Kanchanaketu, Advisor, ECOT - ASEAN Confederation of Employers (Thailand)

How can social protection address or related to those challenges?

- Social insurance view: Mr Amir bin Omar - SLOM Chair (Malaysia)
- Social assistance view: Mrs Florita Villar - SOMSWD Vice Chair (Philippines)
- Social protection providers' view: Mr Agus Susanto, BPJS Employment (Indonesia)

Today, a significant number of workers in ASEAN are not covered by social protection. In particular, as many social insurance schemes are based on employment contract (relationship), workers in informal employment (constitutes a majority of employment in the region) have limited access to them. What are the bottlenecks for expanding coverage?

- Government view: Mr Amir bin Omar - SLOM Chair (Malaysia)
- Workers' view: Mr Abdul Halim Mansor, President, MTUC - ATUC (Malaysia)

- Social assistance view: Mrs Florita Villar - SOMSWD Vice Chair (Philippines)

The good governance of social protection is very important for the extension of social protection coverage. In employers' view, what can be improved in terms of social security governance, particularly in what regards the importance of tripartite boards?

- Employers' view: Mr Ukrish Kanchanaketu, Advisor, ECOT - ASEAN Confederation of Employers (Thailand)

What issues should ASEAN member states deal with beyond the border, and how (e.g. migration, portability of social security benefits, coordination at the regional level etc.)?

- Government view: Mr Amir bin Omar - SLOM Chair (Malaysia)
- Social security institution's view: Mr Agus Susanto, President, BPJS Employment (Indonesia)

Last question, can you summarise in short opportunities, challenges and your role?

- Mr Abdul Halim Mansor, President, MTUC - ATUC (Malaysia)
- Mr Ukrish Kanchanaketu, Advisor, ECOT - ASEAN Confederation of Employers (Thailand)
- Mr Amir bin Omar - SLOM Chair (Malaysia)

Question and discussion from the floor.
